The U.S. Embassy in Manila is seeking an individual for the position of Consular Investigative / Administrative Assistant in the Consular Section / Fraud Prevention Unit (CON/FPU).

BASIC FUNCTION OF THE POSITION

Provides clerical support to the American Officers, Eligible Family Members, and local staff within the Fraud Prevention Unit. Answers telephone inquiries, escorts applicants, collects newspaper articles, makes computer entries based on these articles, and maintains files and supplies. Ensures workflow through FPU by liaising with other consular units, advises Fraud Prevention Analysts and Fraud Prevention Manager on urgent investigations / analyses, schedules provincial field investigations, schedules Fraud Prevention Analyst duty in other consular units, and ensures the necessary access and hours for employees' overtime. Allocates work on special analytical or reporting projects to Fraud Prevention Analysts, adjusts as necessary for absence and conflicting commitments such as duty in one of the other consular units. Communicates with applicants and other offices and advises officers of issues of concern that may arise. Ensures that supply, transportation, and information management needs are brought to the attention of the Fraud Prevention Manager. Drafts cables and letters as requested by Fraud Prevention Unit officers. Disseminates telegraphic, fax, and mail traffic to the appropriate parties. Assists line officers in Immigrant Visa, Non-Immigrant Visa, and American Citizens Services with urgent verification of applicants. Responds to and communicates with foreign embassies and airport officials about the bona fides of various travelers in urgent cases.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED

The U.S. Mission in Manila provides equal opportunity and fair and equitable treatment in employment to all people without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, political affiliation, marital status, or sexual orientation. The Department of State also strives to achieve equal employment opportunity in all personnel operations through continuing diversity enhancement programs.

The EEO complaint procedure is not available to individuals who believe they have been denied equal opportunity based upon marital status or political affiliation.

APPENDIX A

DEFINITIONS

This diagram demonstrates how an Appointment Eligible Family Member (AEFM) is also a US-citizen Eligible Family Member (USEFM) as well as an Eligible Family Member (EFM).

1. Eligible Family Member (EFM): An individual related to a U.S. Government employee in one of the following ways:

- Spouse or same-sex domestic partner (as defined in 3 FAM 1610);
- Child, who is unmarried and under 21 years of age or, regardless of age, is incapable of self-support. The term shall include, in addition to natural offspring, stepchildren and adopted children and those under legal guardianship of the employee or the spouse when such children are expected to be under such legal guardianship until they reach 21 years of age and when dependent upon and normally residing with the guardian;
- Parent (including stepparents and legally adoptive parents) of the employee or of the spouse, when such parent is at least 51 percent dependent on the employee for support;
- Sister or brother (including stepsisters and stepbrothers, or adoptive sisters or brothers) of the employee, or of the spouse, when such sibling is at least 51 percent dependent on the employee for support, unmarried, and under 21 years of age, or regardless of age, incapable of self-support.

2. U.S. Citizen Eligible Family Member (USEFM): For purposes of receiving a preference in hiring for a qualified position, an EFM who meets the following criteria:

- U.S. Citizen; AND
- EFM (see above) at least 18 years old; AND
- Listed on the travel orders of a direct-hire Foreign, Civil, or uniformed service member assigned to or stationed abroad with a USG agency that is under COM authority, or at an office of the American Institute in Taiwan; AND EITHER:
